Rebel Marylanders Kill-d, Wounded and Captured. We learn from the Beltimore Sun the following particulars of an affair near Winchester,

On Friday afternoon two detachments from the companies of Capt. Relain and Robert similat, numbering 22 men, fell into an ambes cade on the road between itserywille and Win chester, the insjority of whom were either stilled, wounded, or taken prisoners. It appears, from information received from the prisoners, who reached this city yesterday morning, that a recommissance was made of the road, which returned and reported all clear. The detachments in question were then sent ont to do picket day, and while going up the road at a gallop they were fired upon by two companies of Federal infastry and a section of artillery, which were waiting in ambush in the woods on the readable. Capt. Rainin's detachment was in advance, and on the first fire Capt. It fell wounded, who take the prisoners Joseph West and Richard Harwood are known to have been killed, and T. ### ALL QUIET IN WARHINGTON.

The contract between the excitement in som of the Northern cities and the reacid condition of the people in this city is generally very striking. There is no alarm or perturbation in the pub He mind here. The Government are watching the movements of the cuemy in the spasmodic efforts they are now making, and they are confident that the movements of our own armies will soon bring trestrievable disaster upon the cause of the rebels.

The Investor Predicted. We copy from the New Orleans Picagune June 4th, the following extract from a Baltimore paper, published previously in the Phila-delphia Inquirer;

I am authorized to say that Mr. Barclay ha been in close counsel with our highest authorities here, and is more than ever convinced of the imperious necessity devolving on our people throughout the whole land to awake at once to a realizing sense of proparing to counteract the consingency of an invasiou of Maryland and Penneylvania by the robel bordes.
